New Features Offered in ExpressTime

ExpressTime Solutions is dedicated to producing the finest business management software available to the service industry. To effectively achieve this result, we are continually looking for methods to improve and enhance our software product. This newsletter will introduce you to our most recent enhancements so that you, our valued customer, will be informed and can take advantage of each new feature.

There are two valuable enhancements we would like to call to your attention. First, we have added the ability to designate approved employees for each building. Second is preventing double scheduling your employees.

Designating "approved employees" for a building grew from the necessity to ensure an employee is properly vetted for a building due to certification requirements, security restrictions, license restrictions or other stipulations. ExpressTime Solutions now offers you the capability to establish a pre-approved employee list for specific buildings based on the applicable restrictions, thereby allowing you to view only those employees who qualify for that building so you never assign a task to an employee who doesn't meet the standards necessary for the particular building. This saves time and eliminates confusion.
